Academic Education

- 2004 - Ph.D. “with distinction” in Mathematics, Tel-Aviv University.
Thesis title: “Topics in Asymptotic Convex Geometry”.
Supervisor: Prof. V. Milman.
- 2001 - M.Sc. “Summa cum laude” in Mathematics, Tel Aviv University.
Thesis title: “Remarks on Minkowski Symmetrization”.
Supervisor: Prof. V. Milman. Average grade: 99.
- 1997 - B.Sc. “Summa cum laude” in Mathematics (major) and Computer Science (minor), Tel Aviv University. Average grade: 97.

Honors

- Clore fellowship for Ph.D. students (2003-2004).
- Supported by the European network (contract HPRN-CT-2000-00116), while visiting the School of Mathematics, University of Paris VI, France 7/2003 – 9/2003.
- Wolf fellowship for Ph.D. students (2002).
- Wolf fellowship for M.Sc. students (2000).
- “Excellent Student” prizes from the university during my B.Sc studies (twice), M.Sc studies and also Ph.D studies.
- A silver medal in the International Mathematics Olympiad, held in Bombay, India in 1996.

Activities

- In the last three years delivered many talks in various seminars (seminars in functional analysis, computer science, probability and combinatorics and harmonic analysis).
- Delivered invited talks at the following international conferences:
 - (1) A conference in Snowbird, Utah, USA (July 2004).
 - (2) A conference in Banff, Canada (July 2004).
 - (3) A conference in Wellington, New-Zealand (February 2004).
 - (4) A seminar in University of Paris VI (three talks, July-August 2003).
 - (5) A conference in Cortona, Italy (June 2003).
 - (6) A conference in Kiel, Germany (April 2003).
